

■ Young Musicians' Day

Friday 24th August

Workshop Day with Byron Wallen and Tony Kofi

11am-4pm St Mary's Hall, Main St, Fishguard. £10

Places limited so please book early on 01348 874015

Learn to play around on your instrument freely and without music! 'Blood brothers' Byron and Tony return to Fishguard, not only to perform with Byron's award-winning band 'Indigo', but to lead a day of exciting and dynamic workshops for young musicians aged 11-25. A basic knowledge of scales (level grade 5 or above) a requirement for improvisational fun with these 2 Jazz Greats, they will show you how to explore, discover new techniques, and let rip on your instrument like you never knew you could!

Byron Wallen's Indigo

7.30pm Theatr Gwaun, West St, Fishguard £15/£10 conc.

Accompanied children free

Think Miles Davis... say Byron Wallen!

The cohesive blend of trumpet, baritone saxophone, bass and drums weave complex rhythms with flowing melodies to evoke sounds of the soul. The inspiration for the music comes from the deepest parts of the Central African rain forest, the remotest parts of Papua New Guinea and Indonesia and the early music of Europe as well as the more obvious influences of jazz, funk, drum and bass and blues. Indigo is a colour, an experience and many moods. Sit back, close your eyes, and feel the music... an opportunity not to be missed - Byron Wallen in Fishguard!

Following their world tour of Byron's latest release 'Meeting Ground', his band Indigo have recently been nominated for two prestigious BBC Jazz Awards: Best Band 2007 and Best Album 2007.

Supported by Arts Council Night Out

Soothsayers + DJ's Gareth & Shanna

10.00pm Goodwick Sports Club £10/£7 conc.

Doors open 8.30pm - Late Bar
